MOTION ON CONSENT FOR SUSPENSION

The parties have exchanged a written settlement proposal on May 28, 2014.

The parties have good cause for this request for suspension of Expert Witness related obligations set forth in the Board's Order dated May 5, 2014 and deferral of Opposer's motion filed on May 22, 2014 for the sake of judicial economy. The remainder of proceedings have already been suspended by the Board.

Accordingly, Opposer hereby moves, on consent, for a 90 day suspension of the proceedings as described above as well as a 90 day extension of the time to respond to Applicant's discovery requests served on May 5, 2014.

Both parties reserve the right to seek an earlier resumption of proceedings if there is no progress with settlement.

In the event that there is no word from either party, upon conclusion of the suspension period, proceedings would automatically resume upon a schedule to be set out by the Board.

PROCEEDINGS TO AUTOMATICALLY RESUME:

September 3, 2014

Applicant's counsel, Katherine M. Hoffman, Esq., has consented to the extension requested herein.

Respectfully submitted,

LADAS & PARRY LLP

Attorneys for Opposer,
